

Okay, here's the rundown for parking on Feb. 13th.

Buses: unload on Raleigh St./Hwy 54, in front of cemetery (as usual); then circle around to park on Country Club Dr. (there will be directional signs); overflow parking will be at the General Administration building on Highway 54--there will be no bus parking at the Smith Center

Spectators: Same as before; there will be directional signs; $5 (Boshamer lot and Ram's Head deck $5 until 1pm, then it's $10); FREE parking will be at Park Place Lot on the other side of the Forest Theatre

Workers/Staff: We will be able to park in the same space as before, however, we will use parking passes this year. I still need you to send me the list of workers, but sooner than later. The same rules apply for this lot. Please remember that there are limited spaces and some must be reserved for handicap parking.
